Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21st of January, O. S.}}{\text{1st of February, N. S.}}$ in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand-Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Petersbourg, Nov. 11. Last Week an Express arrived here from Major Obreskoy, our Minister at Constantinople, by whom we learn, that the Plague had almost entirely ceased there, and that Business of all Kinds began to be carried on again as before. By Advices from Astracan we are informed, that the Tranquillity of Persia was greatly re-established; that the Foreign Factors and Merchants who some Months before had quitted Ispahan with their Effects, for fear of being plundered, were almost all returned; and, that the Commerce of that Country began again to flourish.

Naples, Nov. 12. A few Days ago there was a very great Eruption of Mount Vesuvius; the Torrent of Fire extended itself to a great Distance, and occasioned considerable Damages to the neighbouring Villages; in so much, that the Country People, being greatly terrified, most of them quitted their Houses. On the 29th past in the Afternoon, the Queen went from Portici to see it, and remained there till Ten o'Clock at Night. The King, by a Dispatch from the Secretary of State's Office, has given positive Orders not to grant the Exequatur; for the Future, to any of the Pope's Bulls for Ecclesiastical Benefices that shall become vacant in the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies. The Reason of which Dispatch is this, the Pope has for some Time past been too free in disposing of Benefices which of Right belonged to the Bishops of this Kingdom to dispose of. To prevent which for the Future, this Dispatch stipulates which Benefices shall be disposed of by the Pope, and which by the Bishops; and will thereby infallibly put a Stop to their both naming Persons to the same Benefices, as hath frequently happened of late; and likewise prevent the many Inconveniencies, Animosities, and considerable Expences in Law Suits, which have often happened on this Account, and occasioned the going out of the Kingdom of very considerable Sums of Money.

Rome, Nov. 14. The Pope, on a Representation that the Barbary Pyrates still infest the Roman Coast (as the present Season is not practicable for the Navigation of the Gallies) has ordered the fitting out of two more large Pinks to cruize against them. On the 28th past, Cardinal Alexander Albani took Possession of the Protectorship of the College of St. Bonaventura, and and of that of Montalto of Bologna, lately conferred upon him by the Pope, both vacant by the Deceaſe of Cardinal Hanibal his Brother.

Florence, Nov. 15. On the 5th Inſtant the Marqueſs Malaſpina, the late Miniſter from the Court of Naples to that of Dreſden, being recovered of his Indiſpoſition, proceeded on his Journey to Naples.

Warſaw, Nov. 16. They write from Laticzew, that the Heyducks, who had given no Uneaſineſs for ſome Time paſt, had lately appeared again in great Numbers upon the Territories of the Republick, and had committed very great Diſorders; that ſome rich Jew Merchants who were returning from the Fair of Mohilow, having had the Misfortune to fall into their Hands, had been robbed and murthered by them; and that a large Party of them had been in the Neighbourhood of Winnicza, where they had plundered the Inhabitants of two or three Towns or Villages.

Turin, Nov. 17. This being the Anniverſary of her Royal Highneſs the Dutcheſs of Savoy's Birth-Day, there was a great Court at the Venerie; and, as a Mark of Diſtinction, his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Anſpac was invited to Dinner with his Sardinian Majeſty. On this Occaſion the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters went to Court in their richeſt Habits to pay their Compliments. Don Emanuel de Valguenera, late Viceroy of Sardinia, and who came from thence about a Fortnight ago, was this Day declared Great Chamberlain, in the Room of the late Marqueſs de Gorzegne.

Gotha, Nov. 18. On Thurſday Morning laſt a Fire broke out at Watterſhauſen, a ſmall Town ſituate about two Miles from hence, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that near forty Houſes were entirely reduced to Aſhes in about four Hours Time, notwithſtanding all poſſible Aſſiſtance was ſent them from all the neighbouring Towns and Villages. Many Perſons were very much bruiſed and burnt on this melancholly Occaſion, but we have not as yet heard of more than two or three Perſons who have loſt their Lives.

Dreſden, Nov. 21. The Froſt is ſet in ſo very ſevere in this County, that the Navigation of the Elbe is already greatly interrupted by the Ice. We are informed by private Letters from Holſtein, that the Mortality amongſt the horned Cattle had broke out there again, and raged with great Violence. Laſt Week a Fire broke out in the Night, in one of the Wings of the Caſtle of St. Hubertsberg, but it was ſoon extinguiſhed, and did very little Damage.

Berlin, Nov. 26. The King has granted to Major General the Baron de Stillen, a conſiderable Fief in Pomerania. Laſt Monday Morning his Majeſty came here from Potzdam, and having given ſome Audiences to Foreign Miniſters, returned thither again the next Morning. The young Prince of Anhalt Cothen, who ſome Time ago quitted the Daniſh Service, to enter into that of this Court, has had a Company given him in the King's own Regiment of Horſe Guards.

Bruſſels, Nov. 29. The Citizens of this City have given their Conſent to the raiſing of a Twentieth Penny for the Uſe of his Imperial Majeſty; and of a Tenth Penny for the Support of the Court and Dignity of Prince Charles of Lorrain our Governor General.

Hague, Dec. 2. The Deputies of our Eaſt India Company, and M. Zwellengrebel, heretofore Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, attended this Morning on the Aſſembly of the States General, and gave an Account of the preſent Situation of their Affairs in that Country. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante has appointed Baron Frederick Waſſenaer to be Bailiff of this Place, in the room of the late Baron Charles Waſſenaer.

Whitehall, November 26.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint the Honourable Joſeph Yorke, Eſq; late his Majeſty's Secretary to his Extraordinary Embaſſy at the Court of France, to be his Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to their High Mightineſſes the States General of the United Provinces.

The King has been pleaſed to promote Richard Robinſon, Doctor in Divinity, to the Biſhoprick of Killalla and Achonry in the Kingdom of Ireland, void by the Death of Doctor Mordecai Cary late Biſhop thereof.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Henry Maxwell, Maſter of Arts, the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Kilmore in the Kingdom of Ireland, vacant by the Death of Dr. John Madden late Dean thereof.
